Inclusion Policy

Inclusive education is not a project or an initiative. It is the progressive development of attitudes, behaviours, systems and beliefs that enable inclusive education to become a norm that underpins school culture and is reflected in the everyday life of the school community.

Vision

At GEMS Wellington International School we are committed to ensuring all students have equal opportunities and a quality education, ensuring success within a truly inclusive landscape of mutual respect and equity for all.

Mission

We support and welcome diversity amongst all learners and strive to ensure that every young person feels welcome, accepted, safe and valued within a common learning environment. We endeavour to promote, protect, and ensure the success of all students by providing relevant learning opportunities, pathways and challenges for all. We are proactive in identifying, managing and removing barriers that may limit achievement, participation and progress. We aim to meet the individual needs, promote social and emotional well being and realise the potential of all learners in an environment that recognises their different gifts and talents, the different ways they learn, the different rates at which they learn, and their unique backgrounds and culture.

Aims

UNCRPD has a clear rationale for transitioning from a medical to a rights-based model of disability to achieve the ultimate goal where the inclusion of persons of determination is viewed as a human right, as opposed to a requirement for the benefit of individuals and society in general. The Dubai Inclusive Education Policy Framework (2017) utilises the social construct of disability to set a clear vision of inclusive education across Dubai and defines disability as:

'A social condition that occurs when an individual with a long term limitation, experiences attitudinal, social and environmental barriers that prevent full and effective participation within a community. A disability is the result of an individual's interaction with society and is not an attribute of the person.'

At WIS we aim to operate a rights based model of Inclusion which is in line with the UNCRPD's principles and directives and recognises a student of determination's right to access the same quality of education as other students. We recognise that the disability is not within the person but is created from influences outside of the person as constructed socially by the discriminatory attitudes, policies, and systems. We seek to identify the presence and impact of the difficulties experienced by these students, and maintain high expectations of their participation, engagement and success. We strive to develop effective teaching, learning, and curriculum development processes that cater to all, irrespective of abilities or needs and work in partnership with parents, specialists, and other community members to devise strong, comprehensive, and sustainable systems of inclusion.

This will be achieved by:

- Enabling every teacher to play a key role in facilitating the educational inclusion of students of determination.
- Using flexible and responsive teaching and learning styles
- Providing appropriate and achievable learning targets for all students
- Supporting the learning and participation of all students
- Implementing systems for early identification of barriers to learning and participation
- Recognising, reflecting and celebrating the skills, talents, contributions and diversity of all our students
- Equipping students with the skills, knowledge and attitudes necessary to succeed as individuals and as responsible and valued members of society
- Ensuring systems of teacher professional monitoring and support are designed so that each teacher is fully empowered to remove obstacles which impose educational, and ultimately social exclusion
- Providing high quality pastoral care, support and guidance
- Safeguarding the health, safety and welfare of students

Measuring Success

Students demonstrate better developed learning skills, are more resilient in the face of challenge, have a determination to succeed and are better prepared for their future. They are encouraged and supported to become lifelong learners through accessing opportunities within tertiary education, vocational training or adult education without discrimination and on an equal basis with others. Students with and without needs benefit from the Inclusive setting.
